Grads Earn Degrees

Richard Ruble '57 was awarded the Th.M. degree at Faith Seminary on May 23 and plans to go on to Dallas Seminary to work on his doctor's degree.

At Dallas Seminary, three Bryan graduates from the class of 1957 were in the list of those receiving the Th. M.: Larry Fehl, Kenneth Hanna, and Alan Johnson.

George Vogel '58 graduated on June 4 from Talbot Theological Seminary with a B. D. He is serving as pastor of the United Congregational Church in Los Angeles, Calif.

Edith Crame '55 received the master of social work on June 5 from the West Virginia University.

BRYANITES RETURN TO SERVE

Several Bryan graduates and former students are returning to their Alma Mater to take positions on the faculty and staff this fall.

Edward Payne '53 has been engaged to teach Spanish and science with the possibility of setting up courses in pre-engineering. He will be accompanied by his wife, Josephine (Jenkins '49) Payne, and their three children, George, Jobeth, and Artie Joe.

Pearl Wallace x'50 will assist in the education department as head of the Bryan Kindergarten with its practice teaching program for students. She will also be hostess in the College Dining Hall.

Greta Sorrell '60 and returning student, Robert Carigon, plan to come to Bryan as Mr. and Mrs. Carigon after their August wedding. Greta will serve in one of the college offices and Bob will be assisting with athletics.

As announced earlier in NEWSETTE, Richard Cornelius '55 has joined the English Faculty and Donna (Black x'57) Cornelius will assist in the music department.

Theologian on TV

Dr. Howard C. Kee '40, professor of New Testament at the Theological Seminary of Drew University, was one of two scholars interviewed on a CBS telecast on Sunday, July 16. The subject for discussion on the "Lamp Unto My Feet" program concerned the "Gospel to St. Thomas" manuscript found about 15 years ago. Both scholars agreed that the text of this manuscript contained sayings which are out of harmony with the confirmed teachings of Christ and, therefore, this gospel could not be compared favorably with the existing Gospels of the New Testament.
MISSIONARIES REPORT

Helen Go¥ '48 was camp missionary July 3-14 at Cumberland Springs Bible Camp, directed by Paul Levengood x'38. She also spoke at the Child Evangelism Fellowship camp held at the Skyline Bible Conference on Walden's Ridge and at Cedine Bible Camp for Negroes near Spring City and directed by Paul Zimmerman. Since the door is closed to her return to the Congo, she is making plans to go to the Philippines under Berean Mission to work with children.

Harry and Jean (Tempest x'54) Bain are planning for furlough from South Africa in November. At present they are conducting evangelistic meetings and Holiday Bible school sessions.

Lyman '49 and Helen (Parden '48) Goehring are thank ing the Lord for a 1952 Austin which helps them traverse the city of Belem with its cobblestones. They have just passed the half way mark in this term of service.

"Aunt Margo" as Margaret Ann McKinnon x'42 is known to the children of Bethany Home in Talakag, Bukidnon, Philippine Islands, will have the director's responsibility while Miss Louise Lynip is on furlough until November.

Ralph '54 and Melba (Mays 155) Maynard are expected to begin their furlough this summer from Dutch New Guinea, with plans for a stop-over in Manila.

Sandy Cue '55 anticipates furlough in April 1962 following a conference of the Field Council on which she serves with the Unevangelized Fields Mission. The Brazilian Air Force is building a large airstrip across the river from her station among the Waica Indians.

Roger and Naomi (Hildebrand '55) Walkwitz will complete their term in the Philippines under Far Eastern Gospel Crusade in December, but may remain until next June to take their furlough with their two sons.

Ian '50 and June (Bell '51) Hay left Nigeria in June with Brenda and Alan and anticipate appointments for meetings after September in the States. They serve with Sudan Interior Mission with headquarters in New York City.

David '53 and Marlys x'54 Huey and two daughters have found it necessary to leave the Philippines and return to the States for medical help and counselling for Marlys, whose problem has been diagnosed as being caused by emotional strain. Pray for them in this time of testing and disappointment.

Fishermen in Peru are bringing in their tortoras to dry. A replica of these one-man boats is included in Bryan's missionary museum through the gift of Ed and Joyce deRosset.

Missionary Museum Grows

The response of a number of Bryan alumni on the mission field to provide curios for a missionary museum has resulted in the collection of the following items:

Africa—ebony carving, pastel pictures in native design, wooden comb, cutting tool, ivory mask.
Brazil—Bahian doll, Brazil nut cluster.
Colombia—wooden spoon and dish, miniature lunch box.
Japan—wooden dolls.
Peru—"Manchaipuito" wooden musical instrument, tortora—fishing boat in miniature.
Philippines—wooden carvings, bamboo mailing container, water color painting.
Thailand—coaster set in decorative container.

John '54 and Janice (Brown '53) Miesel sent a report in May from the Republique of Congo where they have been able to continue their teaching and missionary work though with more opposition. Plans are being made to open a Seminary in the fall, but problems of food and transportation are great.

Hugh Coombs '50 and family have remained in Tanganyika since having to leave Congo. They work with Africa Inland Mission in Mwanza and are studying the Swahili language.

Lois Ringler '57 arrived in Republique Centrafricaine last September after spending over a year studying French in Paris, where she received the Diplome de langue, and the Diplome Superieur. In Paris she met Darwin Naddo '54 and his family and Jim '55 and Lois (Frieswyk '56) Gould. Her ministry in Africa includes teaching 74 students, wives of pastoral students.
CAMPUS VISITORS
